On [redacted] white male,
born July 28, 1953, [redacted]

[redacted] attempted to steal the mailing list of the National States Rights Party (NSRP). He was shot during the process by [redacted] brother of [redacted] who reportedly had been given the responsibility of protecting the national offices of NSRP because they suspected [redacted] [redacted] who had been expelled from NSRP, might attempt to steal their records.

The Chatham County Police Department investigated the shooting of [redacted] and charged [redacted] with investigation as to aggravated assault. They impounded the mailing list which is composed of addressograph type plates with stencil material in the centers of the plates. The plates were made available to Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on July 27, 1970, by Detective [redacted] Chatham County Police Department.

The following names were found in the mailing list made available by [redacted]
